Offices: Elmsford, NY

Anthony graduated Magna Cum Laude in Cursu Honorum from Fordham University with a Bachelor's Degree in Mathematics and Computer Science. He earned a Juris Doctor degree from St. John's University Law School. Anthony is admitted to practice in New York State and in all four U.S. District Courts. He also is a member of the New York State Bar Association. He frequently lectures on current trending cases involving New York Personal Injury Protection and Supplementary Uninsured Motorists Coverage, Denials of Coverage / Disclaimers of Liability and Diversity / Inclusion / Elimination of Bias.

Anthony has been a practicing insurance coverage and defense attorney since 1989, specializing in both Workers' Compensation cases and first-party and third-party matters. He regularly counsels and serves as a resource for insurance companies regarding insurance coverage issues, litigation defense and claim handling. He provides coverage opinions concerning policy interpretation, additional insured status, contractual pass-through / indemnification, priority of coverage, and denials / disclaimers.

Anthony's practice areas include Automobile, Construction, Dram Shop Liability, General Liability, Insurance Coverage, Subrogation and Workers' Compensation. His wide-ranging expertise adds a unique perspective to each of those areas which contributes to the cost-effective resolution on motions, at non-binding mediation, at trial and on appeal and to the successful defense of Workers' Compensation cases, first-party suits/arbitrations and third-party suits.
