Offices: New York, NY

Gregory B. Murray is based in the New York City office of Pillinger Miller Tarallo LLP. His developing practice is supported by experience in corporate and employment-related matters, legal research, and business operations, together with a strong interest in the intersection of law, business, and emerging industries.

Prior to joining PMT, Mr. Murray gained in-house legal experience with Justworks, where he conducted legal research and analysis, assisted with matters involving employment law, and worked closely with outside counsel. His broader business experience includes entrepreneurship and legal consulting initiatives, providing him with a practical perspective on the commercial considerations that affect clients and their organizations.

Mr. Murray attended New York Law School, where he served in an array of positions within various student organizations such as the Jewish Law Student Association, Privacy & Technology Law Association, and the Sports Law Society. Mr. Murray solidified his desire to litigate while at NYLS and is ready to assist on a multitude of practice areas for the firm. He earned his Bachelor of Arts, magna cum laude, in Business Management with a minor in Communications from Rollins College, where he was a four-year member of the collegiate baseball team. He is highly detail oriented and has a deep desire to help his clients find successful resolutions.
