

Angelique A. Pesce

Associate

E-mail: apesce@pmtlawfirm.com

Offices: Elmsford, NY

Angelique practices in both State and Federal Courts in New York. She has a background in business law and litigation. She taught Mass Media Law and Ethics for 12 years. She is the founder of a family-owned non-profit organization devoted to raising awareness on body diversity in fashion merchandising. Her practice areas include Appellate Litigation, Automobile, Claims & Litigation Management, Complex Multi-Party Litigation, Employment Practices, General Liability, Insurance Coverage, Municipal Defense, Non-Profit Organizations, Pharmaceutical Liability, Products Liability, Professional Liability, Subrogation, Transportation & Trucking.

During law school Angelique was a summer fellow at the UN Division for the Advancement of Women CEDAW and a summer clerk for the Hon. Linda S. Jamieson. She was an Editor for The Real Property Law Journal, research assistant to Prof. Tanya Hernandez for the Law Review Puerto Rico on the competing intestate structures of England and Native America and is the winner of the St. John's Award for her authorship on restructuring coverage and finance of the United States Health Care Delivery System based on the Human Genome Project.

She is an avid runner, published novelist, children's book writer/illustrator, team winner of the Sundance Grand Jury Prize in filmmaking, a member of the professional Guild 892 East/West and local 764, and former principle ballerina at the Mid-Atlantic Ballet Company. She loves the practice of law and finds the work rewarding to her community.

Professional Affiliations

New York State Bar Association

Distinctions

Noard Member ESTEEMbyDESIGN non-profit organization

Former Board of Advisors The Katherine Gibbs School Externship Program

Publications: Peas Are Green, My Bird and My Family Tree, American Pastime, I Love You

Lectures: The Women of Power and Style Summit, The Riverdale Ethical School for Culture, Manhattan College Comm. Dept.

Awards: Real Property Law Journal, St. John's Award Health Care Delivery Systems

Practice Areas

Appellate Litigation
Automobile
Claims & Litigation Management
Complex Multi-Party Litigation
Employment Practices
General Liability
Insurance Coverage
Municipal Defense
Non-Profit Organizations
Pharmaceutical Liability
Products Liability
Professional Liability
Subrogation
Transportation & Trucking

Admissions

Bar

New York

Courts

Second Department Supreme Court and Eastern District Federal Court

Education

Manhattan College

New York University School of Professional Studies

St. John's University School of Law