Offices: New York, NY | Elmsford, NY

Arash Irani received his J.D. from Pace Law School in 2020, where he concentrated in Commercial Law. While in law school, Mr. Irani was a Research Assistant to Professor Leslie Y. Garfield Tenzer. Mr. Irani was elected to serve as a Student Bar Association representative throughout his law school tenure. In addition to his legal studies, Mr. Irani interned with the Honorable Judge Melissa A. Crane, J.S.C. in the Commercial Division at the New York State Supreme Court where he drafted initial decisions on motions.

Mr. Irani focuses his practice on defending property owners, developers, general contractors, construction managers, and subcontractors in personal injury actions arising out of labor law, construction defect, and property damage claims. He also has experience in insurance coverage, specifically coverage issues arising under Commercial General Liability policies.

Mr. Irani graduated with a Bachelor of Arts degree from Rutgers University in 2017, Cum Laude, where he majored in Political Science, and double-minored in History and Labor Law.

As an avid sports enthusiast who resides in New Jersey, Mr. Irani manages NBA and NFL athletes in their off-the-field appearances and negotiations.
