

Christopher G. Todd

Associate

E-mail: ctodd@pmtlawfirm.com

Offices: Elmsford, NY | Syracuse, NY

Christopher joined Pillinger Miller & Tarallo in 2015 as a trial attorney. Prior to joining the firm, he practiced law in the trial departments of several prominent law firms in White Plains, Syracuse and Buffalo, New York. His practice is primarily in the area of civil trial law with a focus on representing individuals and companies accused of causing injuries to other people through negligence and/or reckless conduct.

He has also represented clients in commercial litigation, product liability defense, construction law and professional liability defense. Before attending college, Christopher was a Non-commissioned Officer in the United States Army serving as a forward observer for the artillery and is a veteran of the Persian Gulf War.

Practice Areas

Automobile
General Liability
Professional Liability

Admissions

Bar
New York

Courts

U.S. District Court, Eastern and
Southern Districts of New York

Education

State University of New York,
University at Buffalo Law School,
J.D.

State University of New York,
College of Environmental Science
& Forestry, cum laude

Professional Affiliations

New York State Bar Association

Distinctions

Robert J. Connelly Award for Excellence in Trial Advocacy: Recipient, 2002
Buffalo Law Review; Systems Editor (2001-2002); Associate (2000-2001)
Buffalo Environmental Law Journal; Systems Editor (2000-2001)
Benjamin and David Scharps Prize for Legal Writing, Recipient, 1998
Co-Founder Onondaga County Veteran's Pro Bono Legal Clinic
Onondaga County Bar Association Pro Bono Service Award, Recipient, 2011