

Jacklyn Macias

Associate

E-mail: jmacias@pmtlawfirm.com

Offices: Elmsford, NY

Before joining the firm, Jacklyn spent four years as an associate with another local insurance defense firm. While there, she handled a wide array of cases ranging from automobile accidents, premise liability, dram shop liability, and construction/labor law. She was also the lead associate assigned to assist the managing partner in a multi-million dollar federal discrimination lawsuit and counterclaim.

Prior to her insurance defense work, Jacklyn worked for a small general practice firm in New Rochelle, handling criminal, contractual, real estate, and probate matters. She is licensed in California, where she practiced federal criminal defense and provided pro bono legal services to the marines and sailors, military spouses, and veterans aboard Camp Pendleton in Oceanside, California, where she counseled clients in family, tax, contractual and landlord-tenant disputes.

Practice Areas

Automobile
Construction
General Liability
Insurance Coverage
Products Liability
Professional Liability
Transportation & Trucking

Admissions

Bar

New York
California

Courts

Southern District of New York
Northern District of New York
Southern District of California

Education

Thomas Jefferson
School of Law, JD
St. Bonaventure University, BA
Political Science

Professional Affiliations

New York State Bar Association
California State Bar Association