

Julie L. Mer

Associate

E-mail: jmer@pmtlawfirm.com

Offices: Elmsford, NY

Julie has eighteen years of experience, handling all aspects of litigation from inception to trial. While she now focuses her practice on defending owners, general contractors and subcontractors in construction accident litigation, she has experience in asbestos defense, the defense of premises liability, motor vehicle accidents, property damage and defamation claims, foreclosure litigation, commercial litigation and debtor liability.

Prior to law school, Julie was an actress, having studied at the Royal Academy of Dramatic Art in London for three years. Upon her return to the States, she appeared in off and off-off Broadway shows, television commercials and independent films.

Practice Areas

Construction

Admissions

Bar

New York

Courts

Southern and Eastern Districts of New York, U.S. Federal Court

All Courts within the State of New York

Education

Fordham University School of Law

University of Wisconsin-Madison