

Nicolette Arapis

Associate

E-mail: narapis@pmtlawfirm.com

Offices: Garden City, NY

Nicolette graduated magna cum laude from Penn State Law in May 2021, where she was also inducted into the Woolsack Honor Society for academic excellence, ranking in the top fifteen percent of her graduating class. She also received a concentration in Health Law and Business Law, as well as a CALI Award for Excellence in Contracts. She received a Bachelor of Arts Degree from Baruch College, through the Macaulay Honors Program in 2014.

While in law school, Nicolette participated in the Veteran's and Servicemembers Legal Clinic, where she spent a majority of her semester writing a brief on behalf of a client, submitted to the Board of Veterans Appeals. She was also able to attend Board of Veterans Affairs hearings, conduct legal research, as well as meet with medical experts, while working closely with supervisor Michele Vollmer.

Nicolette currently specializes in insurance defense, insurance coverage, and products liability. She has joined PMT directly from law school.

Practice Areas

Insurance Coverage
Products Liability

Admissions

Bar

New York (pending)

Courts

New York (pending)

Education

Penn State Law, J.D.

Baruch College, B.A.