E-mail: vkachka@pmtlawfirm.com

Offices: Philadelphia, PA

Vlad Kachka is an associate with Pillinger Miller Tarallo, and handles general liability and professional liability cases from start to finish throughout New Jersey, New York and, Pennsylvania.

Vlad's wide breadth of experience makes him a valuable asset to the firm and his clients. Prior to joining Pillinger Miller and Tarallo, he was an associate at a prominent litigation firm, where he focused on representing clients in labor and employment matters and bankruptcy. His experience includes representing clients before state and federal trial courts, as well as at the appellate level. Before that, Vlad was a law clerk for the Honorable Denise M. Francois of the Superior Court of the Virgin Islands and assisted Judge Francois in all aspects of civil court trial practice. Finally, Vlad worked as a legal content editor for Bloomberg Law and focused his articles on the latest developments in labor and employment law. He has always prided himself on fighting zealously for his clients and achieving the results only a dedicated attorney can bring.

Vlad earned his Bachelor of Arts from The Ohio State University. Vlad then went on to earn his law degree from American University, Washington College of Law, located in Washington, D.C. During law school, he served as an editor for the Business Law Review.
