

Wendy Eson

Partner

E-mail: weson@pmtlawfirm.com

Offices: Elmsford, NY

Wendy has more than 20 years of experience practicing insurance defense litigation. Prior to joining the firm, she practiced as both in-house and outside counsel, handling cases from inception through trial and appeal. At PMT, she handles primarily premises liability and labor law cases and works hard to get the best results for her clients.

She received her undergraduate education at Binghamton University, where she earned a degree in Biology, and her Juris Doctorate degree from Fordham University School of Law.

She also founded and is on the Board of Directors of a 501(c)(3) which sends kids in need to summer camp and is a proud finisher of the NYC marathon.

Professional Affiliations

New York State Bar Association

Practice Areas

Automobile
Construction
Dram Shop Liability
General Liability
Subrogation

Admissions

Bar

New York

Courts

New York

Education

Binghamton University
Fordham University
School of Law